

Blue Brindle/Dark Heather

Smoothfaced

Sandfaced

Similar to Staffordshire Blue, Blue Brindle and Dark Heather are a predominantly blue colour, with subtle shade differences of lighter blue and purple hues.

Left: A refurbishment and new build project at Tortworth Court used Blue Brindle Plain and Ornamental Club Tiles. They matched so well that it was very hard to see which buildings were actually new. The project was awarded Best Commercial New Build Clay Roof at the 2002 CRTA Awards.

Left: On this private house, Blue Brindle tiles have been used on the roof, and Brown Antique Sandfaced tiles provide contrasting shades to the vertical elevations.

Top image: Dark Heather Sandfaced tiles provide a strong contrast to the honey coloured stonework at Accomodation Block, Middle Aston, Nr Banbury.

Middle image: Dark Heather tiles on this development of apartments at Bolnore village.

Bottom image: Blue Brindle tiles on a garage in Hampshire.